Tornadoes Whip Oklahoma, Tex., Damage Heavy

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—High winds and tornadoes whipped across north central Texas and into Oklahoma early today, doing considerable damage.

High winds and what police said was a tornado skipped across Oklahoma City, another funnel dipped down on a rural area near Ada in southeast Oklahoma, and a third was sighted in the air near McLoud in east central Oklahoma.

A small twister struck a flight line at Perrin Air Force Base near Denison, Tex., a few miles south of the Oklahoma border. Three planes and a trailer house used for a helicopter alert center were damaged. Wide spread but minor wind damage was reported in the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

The path of the storm in Oklahoma City, which hit about 5 a. m., was described as one to two blocks wide and two miles long. Damage was confined principally to broken windows and torn roofs.

Residents of the Fitzhugh community 10 miles southwest of Ada said two houses had been unroofed, several barns damaged and numerous outbuildings on farms in the area blown down. That storm hit about 6 a. m.

Ada is about 85 miles southwest of Oklahoma City and McLoud about 30 miles east.

Strong straight winds hit Oklahoma City's Municipal Airport southwest of the city at about the time the tornado was reported. A light plane was flipped over at the airport but no other damage was reported. Winds at the airport hit gusts up to 77 miles per hour.

Oklahoma City Police Lt. H. C. Briscoe said he had sighted the funnel cloud and trailed it across the city.

Sheriff's Meeting Gets Underway

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—The annual convention of the Arkansas Sheriffs' Assn., opens here today.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus will install new officers for the group tonight.

About 200 sheriffs, associate members and wives are attending.

Would Assign Non-Military Space Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today urged Congress to give the civilian space agency the full responsibility for development of a national program of nonmilitary space exploration.

In one special message to Congress, Eisenhower called for amendment of the 1958 National Aeronautics and Space Act to eliminate what he has termed deficiency provisions.

In a second message he put before Congress his plan—first announced last fall—for transfer of the Army rocket development team to the Civilian National Aeronautics and Space Administration. That plan will go into effect automatically in 60 days unless vetoed by the House or Senate.

In his message calling for amendment of the space act, Eisenhower said the present law contains several provisions which tend to obscure the responsibility of NASA for planning and directing a national program of space exploration and peaceful space activity.

Eisenhower said he has become convinced during the 15 months since NASA was established that the law needs to be revised "so as to place responsibility directly and unequivocally in one agency, NASA, for planning and managing a national program of nonmilitary space activities."

The proposed shift would place the Army rocket team headed by German-born Dr. Wernher von Braun under the direction of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Gathright Files at Pine Bluff

Gathright represents the 20th Senatorial District, including Jefferson and Lincoln counties. Smith serves the Fifth Chancery District, including Crawford, Lee, Phillips, St. Francis, Monroe and Woodruff counties.

Legislative Foe of Faubus for Special Session

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A leading legislative foe of Gov. Orval E. Faubus today endorsed the governor's call for a special session next week for new laws to lure more industry.

So did a man who may oppose Faubus for governor if the latter makes an expected fourth term try.

State Sen. Ellis Fagan of Little Rock said that "if the governor and Winthrop Rockefeller think the special session will accomplish something to help industry in Arkansas, then I am all for it. I don't know the details of the legislation, but I am willing to listen."

Rockefeller is chairman of the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission.

Marvin Melton of Jonesboro, a former state senator, who may run for governor, said that it was his understanding the impending special session was to encourage industry to come to Arkansas.

"I think we should have all the machinery possible at hand to work with," he said.

Both Fagan and Melton could be expected to plug for industry. Fagan, an electrical contractor, is president of the Associated Industries of Arkansas.

Melton, a farmer and stockman, is president of the Arkansas State Chamber of Commerce.

Fagan has been one of Faubus' most outspoken opponents in the Legislature, especially when the governor's backers were trying to get through racially-tinted legislation.

But Faubus, in announcing the special session yesterday, said he would not present any new measures growing out of the integration controversy.

He said he would propose instead legislation designed to make Arkansas more attractive to big industries.

Specific immediate target is a $1,300,000 branch the Seiberling Rubber Co. of Akron, Ohio, has promised to locate at Batesville if the proposed legislation is adopted.

But Faubus said the measures he had in mind might result in even bigger plants in Arkansas.

Politics Is Charged in Negro's Arrest

NEW YORK (AP)—Manhattan Borough President Hulan Jack's indictment on conspiracy and city charter violation charges — a politically explosive case — will be the subject of a top-level Albany conference next week between Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Mayor Robert F. Wagner.

Rockefeller, who only recently took himself out of the picture as a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, is the only official with power to remove the 52-year-old Democratic Negro official from office.

Wagner, who from time to time has been mentioned as a possible candidate for the Democratic vice-presidential nomination this year, emphasized Wednesday in agreeing to the parley with Rockefeller that the power of removal or suspension of Jack "rests with the governor alone."

Jack announced after his indictment that he was relinquishing his duties as the highest Negro holder of municipal office in the nation "until such time as a court of law has resolved the issues now present."

The four-count indictment against Jack on misdemeanor charges grew out of his acceptance of a $4,400 redecorating job on his Harlem apartment from Sidney J. Ungar, a real estate man doing business with the city. Ungar once served as Jack's campaign manager.

Jack was charged with a conflict-of-interest under the city charter and with conspiring to obstruct the grand jury's investigation of the case.

Thor Soon to Be Used in Space Test

By HOWARD BENEDICT

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The Air Force has announced that the military test program of the Thor intermediate range ballistic missile has been completed and the missile soon will be used in a series of three shots to test a new space engine.

If successful, the new engine will boost small scientific satellites into orbit and deep into space. It probably will be employed on Thor-Able and Thor-Dart rockets, three-stage vehicles utilizing the Thor as a first stage.

The engine reportedly will generate about 165,000 pounds of thrust on liftoff, 15,000 pounds more than that poured out by the regular Thor.

This is not designed to match the power of the U. S. Atlas or the Soviet Lunik rockets, which are driven by thrusts of about 360,000 pounds and 800,000 pounds, respectively.

Thor-Ables using the regular Thor engine have been fired previously on space assignments, and another is expected to try within a few weeks to send a 9-pound payload to the vicinity of the planet Venus.

However, the Delta vehicle — similar to but more sophisticated than the Able — has yet to be tested. The first Delta launching is scheduled for March. This will be an attempt to place a 160-foot inflatable balloon satellite into a 1,000-mile high orbit about the earth. It will be an experiment in bouncing radio and television signals between continents.

Doesn't Believe in Own Magic

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—It would seem that John Richmond, a 61-year-old Negro, doesn't believe in his own magic.

Chancellor Guy Williams yesterday issued an injunction prohibiting Richmond from "diagnosing and treating" evil spells.

Richmond did not appear in court, although officers said he had a handbook of witchcraft which included a ritual to be performed before going to court to insure winning the case.

He was given a $250 suspended fine in North Little Rock Municipal Court Jan. 5 on a charge of illegally practicing medicine without a license. Officers said he took money from Negroes to cure them of evil spells.

Fairly Hard to Please Everybody

YONKERS, N. Y. (AP)—Sometimes you can't please anybody—even burglars.

George Price, a local resident, Wednesday reported the following to police:

Price and his family had been away on vacation, and had taken their family valuables with them. When they arrived home on Tuesday their house had been broken into. The total haul was three dozen golf balls and the contents of a wine bottle.

The thief must have been plenty mad. With a lipstick, on a bedroom mirror, he scrawled: "Cheap skate."

Illness Keeps Finch Trial in Recess

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A juror's illness kept the Finch murder trial in recess today. When it resumes Monday, actor Mark Stevens joins the cast.

The stark, handsome movie star says Barbara Finch told him a few days before her death that her surgeon husband had tried to kill her and she feared for her life.

Other witnesses have said the same thing.

Dr. R. Bernard Finch, 42, rich suburban physician, and attractive Carol Tregoff, 23, his mistress, are accused of murdering Finch's wife last July 18 outside their West Covina home. The prosecution says the defendants wanted to marry without sharing the Finch estate with the tennis-loving socialite, who had sued for divorce.

Juror Floyd G. Jones' illness with bronchitis caused the recess. Stevens' addition to the list of 50 prosecution witnesses came as a surprise. He told a newsman he volunteered to testify.

The film and TV actor-producer said he had known the Finches about four years. He is a member of the swank Los Angeles Tennis Club, to which they also belonged.

Bennett Makes It Official for Governor

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett said today he expects to win the Arkansas gubernatorial nomination in the first Democratic primary July 26.

"I've never been in a runoff yet," Bennett said. "I'm shooting to win—even though I may have four or five opponents."

In answer to a newsman's question, he said he assumed Gov. Orval E. Faubus would be one of the opponents.

Bennett took a backhanded slap at Faubus' length of time in office.

"All kingdoms and all administrations sooner or later become a bore to the public," he said, "and that attitude is always reflected at the polls."

Response to his entry into the gubernatorial race was encouraging, Bennett said. He added, "I was up most of the night answering the telephone."

The 42-year old Bennett formally entered the race yesterday by filing party loyalty and corrupt practices pledges and paying a $1,500 filing fee to Secretary of State C. G. Hall.

Bennett's name has been mentioned prominently as an eventual gubernatorial candidate since he first took office as attorney general three years ago.

The attorney general promised an affirmative campaign. He said he would refrain from personal attacks on any opponent he might have.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus' only comment was, "I have no criticism of anyone who runs for governor. It's a laudable ambition."

Bennett may find Faubus among his opponents before the filing deadline. The governor looks more and more like a man who plans to seek an unprecedented fourth term.

Many persons thought Bennett planned to seek the state's top office in 1958 before Faubus, at the height of his popularity in the wake of the Little Rock integration crisis, announced for a third term.

Bennett gives ground to no one in the integration segregation field. His principal activity as attorney general has been a series of prosecutions directed against the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

When existing laws rendered unconstitutional new anti-NAACP legislation and pushed it through the General Assembly.

The attorney general believes integration-segregation will be a issue in this summer's campaign. Faubus has said he does not think it will.

Bennett is a combat veteran of World War II, married and the father of two children. A native of Helena, his parents moved to El Dorado when he was five. He attended El Dorado schools, Southern State College, El Dorado Junior College and Vanderbilt University Law School.

Bennett has served his second term as prosecuting attorney of the 13th Judicial Circuit when he was elected state general. He has his first state-wide race in 1940 when he campaigned against Secretary Hall and now is serving his 12th term.

24 More Convicts Are Given Paroles

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Board of Pardons and Paroles has paroled 24 convicts and recommended executive clemency for two others.

Paroles on a list released yesterday included Harold Robert McKean, 20, one of two men sentenced in 19 years for the 1953 robbery of the Citizens Bank & Trust Co. of Van Buren.

McKean won't be freed, however, he'll be turned over to Kansas officers to serve an unexpired term.

McKean's accomplice in the $10,750 robbery, Charles Daugherty, was not paroled. The pair was arrested 48 hours after the robbery.

At Least 63 Persons Die in Peru Earthquake

LIMA, Peru (AP)—Supplies and other aid were rushed today to Arequipa, victim of Peru's second severe earthquake in less than a month.

At least 63 persons were reported killed and 200 injured in the south Peruvian city. Communications with the capital were broken Wednesday night and officials said the toll might be much higher.

Five plane loads of medical supplies were readied. President Manuel Prado and Premier Pedro Beltrán planned to accompany one of the planes.

Many of Arequipa's 80,000 residents slept in the streets following the last of three tremors that leveled houses and stores and knocked over telephone poles.

About 60 per cent of the city and its suburbs was reported destroyed or seriously damaged.

Most residents of the city, located at the foot of the El Misti volcano, were asleep when the first tremor came early Wednesday.

Last night about 5 seconds, it caused the "major destruction."

The second and third shocks came at noon and 4 p. m., but then most of the people were huddled in the streets and clear of falling walls and roofs.

During Christmas week six tremors violently shook the Ayacucho department in southern Peru, killing 17 and injuring 50.

Polio Appeals Being Sent to Hope Residents

More than 3,500 individual appeals for the New March of Dimes campaign to prevent crippling diseases are being delivered to Hope residents today and tomorrow.

March of Dimes Mailers are being distributed by Handicapped workers — some of whom are afflicted by polio — at a tremendous saving to the local chapter. The cost is 12 cents per mailer, a savings of 2.8 cents. By using this method of distribution, the chapter will save about $90.00 in postage.

Each appeal contains an envelope which gives residents a personal way to participate in "The National Foundation's expanded program. This year after polio obligations are met, funds will go to fight birth defects and arthritis. These crippling affect one out of every four in our country."

As funds become available to the Hempstead County Chapter, financial assistance will be provided for children under age 18 who suffer from arthritis or certain birth defects. However, as in the past, victims of paralytic polio, as Hempstead County's one new case in 1959 as well as Hempstead Countians struck in past years still needing patient care, will continue to receive the very best available care and treatment.

"The National Foundation has an unwritten contract with the American people to care for polio patients and they intend to carry out this contract."

NLR Ousts Air Port Manager

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The North Little Rock Airport Commission has voted to buy out the contract of its controversial airport operator, O. W. Noble.

Albany Paul O. Duke and Edward McCulloch demanded the commission revoke Noble's contract outright after the operator was convicted last week on charges of assault with a deadly weapon.

Noble was fined $100 and costs in Municipal Court for firing at the car of some teenagers who had parked at the airport.

Operator of Airport Guilty of Assault

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP)—O. W. Noble, operator of the North Little Rock Airport, was found guilty of aggravated assault with a deadly weapon today in a case which involved alleged shooting at some teen-agers.

Noble was fined $100 and given a suspended five-day jail sentence by Municipal Judge Milton McLeas.

The defendant, who has a 10-year lease to operate the city airport, was arrested Dec. 1 after two boys and two girls reported that a shot was fired into their automobile while it was on airport property.

McLeas said he agreed completely with a recent statement by Mayor William Lamm to the city council that "as much as we value the airport, it would not be worth the life of one teen-ager."

At a council meeting last night, aldermen cut a $52,000 airport appropriation from the 1960 budget. Alderman Edward L. McCulloch and Paul O. Duke said they would oppose all airport funds until a dispute over keeping the operator was settled. Duke wants Noble fired.

Johnson Wins Big Support of Colleagues

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas had overwhelming support from his Democratic colleagues today to continue his middle-of-the-road policies in the Senate.

Nipping a liberal revolt, the Democrats killed by a 51-42 vote a proposal to strip Johnson of control of the party Policy Committee, to expand its size and direct it to develop over-all policy.

The vote was taken during a 2 1/2-hour closed party conference Tuesday. The liberal group had sought a stronger voice in determining tactics and policy.

By a 51-41 vote the caucus then directed Johnson to continue to appoint members of the party Steering Committee, which makes assignments of individual senators to coveted standing committee posts.

With his leadership tactics thus resoundingly endorsed, Johnson told reporters he will continue to follow the course he has in the past.

This has involved restraint in criticizing President Eisenhower and the tailoring of legislation in an effort to avoid presidential vetoes. It has meant the enactment of compromise measures rather than passage of bills designed mainly to build up a Democratic political record.

Sen. Albert Gore (D-Tenn.), who led the fight to take away some of Johnson's powers, said he thought the battle "augurs well for our party."

"Though we lost this time, we may have won in seeming to lose," he said.

A sharper comment came from Sen. Paul Douglas (D-Ill.), who began a move to have more caucuses at which the 68 Senate Democrats could air their views.

"It is apparent that a majority of the senators are not yet ready for political self-government but prefer to stay in a state of political colonialism," Douglas said.

Johnson said he will continue as he has for 10 years, to call a caucus whenever the leadership determines it would be desirable

Destitute Couple Had Plenty Money

DETROIT (AP)—Police found more than $22,000 in cash, bonds and bank accounts in the junky, cluttered apartment of an elderly couple about to be evicted. The wealth was found among assorted pieces of refuse and maps cluttering the four-room apartment of Anthony Ketko, 68, and his wife, Agatha, 62.

A court bailiff who went to the apartment with an eviction order Monday found Ketko lying on a mattress, apparently ill.

The Ketkos were taken to a hospital. Nurses found $500 pinned to Mrs. Ketko's clothing. Police then began the search.

Ketko is unemployed and his wife works as a clairvoyant.

The Ketkos' landlord, Paul W. Smith, said he started eviction proceedings after city building inspectors filed violation notices and the Ketkos refused to let him enter the apartment to repair it.

The couple lived in the apartment 11 years and paid $40 a month rent.

Players Must Still Learn Two Ways in Football

By WHITNEY MARTIN Associated Press Sports Writer

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The college footballers still must learn to play the game both ways — offense and defense.

The rules makers assured this by passing a revised substitution rule labeled a compromise between "unlimited" substitution, advocated by most of the coaches, and the stand-pat policy urged by the NCAA.

First comments by coaches over the country were favorable.

The concession to the coaches is that they may send in one man at a time at any time, and as often as they please. The concession to the NCAA is that the rule governing substitutes under other circumstances remains unchanged.

That is, when players are sent in in numbers from 2 to 11, they are charged against them, and they are permitted only 2 such entries in a quarter.

On the surface, the change seems comparatively minor, but it nevertheless opens a wide field which will challenge the ingenuity of the coaches.

They now, if they so desire, can call the plays themselves by sending a solo sub every play, whether or not the clock is running. They can develop individual kicking and passing and defensive specialists and be able to get them in and out on occasion demands.

But the change as a whole will have to play the game both ways. A situation which is pleasing even to the two-platoon advocates.

The revised rule was passed by the 13 committee voters unanimously, said Gen. Bob Neveland of Tennessee. Rules Committee chairman, at the close of the final session Wednesday. It's basic difference from the 1959 rule is that a substitute, going in alone, is not charged with an entry, and he can return whether or not he already has used up his two group entries. Also, the clock may be running. Last year it had to be stopped.

Broyles Pleased With Free Subbing

FAVETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Frank Broyles thinks liberalization of the wild card substitution rule will make football a better game.

The University of Arkansas head coach favored such action, rather than a return to a two-platoon system.

The rule was changed yesterday to permit one player to enter the game after each play without being charged an entry under limited substitution rules. Under the old rule, the wild card player could enter only if time was out on the field.

"The change will speed up the game," Broyles said. "We won't have so many time outs called just because a coach wants to get a certain player into the game."

Broyles said the change might confuse spectators who "won't know all the time who's in the game."

The former world welter and middleweight champion told the commission Wednesday he knew nothing of what his co-managers, Johnny DeJohn and Joe Nieto, did with their share of his ring earnings. DeJohn admitted paying about $34,000 from 1955 to 1959 to Gabe Gonovese, who has been convicted of an undercover manager of another fighter. Nieto admitted paying $25,000 to Gonovese, an old friend, from 1956 to 1958.

All three said they had met Frankie Carbo, a shadowy underworld figure who also has been convicted of being an unlicensed manager. They denied ever paying him any money.

Asked if Carbo at any time ever had a hand in arranging his fights, Basilio said: "He never suggested anything to me about making any fights for me. I wouldn't have any part of him, because I read in papers and books that he was an underworld character."

When action the commission can take is doubtful. The New York manager's licenses of DeJohn and Nieto have expired and were not renewed. Actually Basilio's boxer's license was not renewed because he has not fought in this state recently.

by trouble. In facing the heart-breaking situation, you developed the kind of spirit which is unbeatable. I hope that girls who find themselves in the same plight read this and take courage.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I go with a wonderful boy, get straight A's in school, am a sophomore in the academic course, a class officer and have many friends. My steady is extremely good-looking, well built, fine-mannered and a personality. He is as fond of me as I am of him. I am 15 years, he too is 15; but only in the eighth grade at Junior High. His problem is hard to believe. He cannot read! It breaks my heart when I see his report. He says if he does not pass this year he will quit. Can you help me, for my welfare and his?

"I Care" G. Illiteracy, is a handicap certainly, but not fatal. I once knew a millionaire, a self-made man, who could neither read nor write. Nevertheless, for an otherwise normal youngster, it is unable to read, indicates a mental block. Ordinarily his English teacher would be the one best equipped to solving a reading problem. You could help, however, by encouraging the boy friend to take turns with you in reading aloud from a book on some hobby of his. He might have to memorize the text at first but he'll learn—if you have the patience and the love to bear with him.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

One year ago I lost my husband just three months before he could see our new son. We married young, he was 18 and I 16. Those were the happiest months of my life. Without him, I felt there was just nothing left, but as time passed, with the help of God, I am starting to think of a future again. I am young—just 18. Is it still proper for me to wear my wedding ring on my left hand? "Please Advise".

Dear "Please Advise": Yes.

Family Awarded $88,000 Judgment

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP) — A Russellville widow and her three children have received the highest award ever made by a Pope County jury in a personal injury suit.

A total of $88,000 was awarded to Mrs. Stella Bradford, 31, and her three children, Linda, 11, William, 13, and Carla Sue, 5. They had sought a total of almost $300,000.

The award is against Raye and Co., a Jasper, Mo., transport company, and William Glenn Thompson, a Raye driver, and against Phillips Home Moving Co. of Little Rock and Arthur Trent, a Negro driver for Phillips.

Circuit Judge Aubrey Strait said the award applies equally to one or all defendants.

Mrs. Bradford's husband, Carl, 31, and a daughter, Cheryl, 10, were killed last July in a three vehicle crash on Highway 64 near Conway. The Phillips truck driven by Trent, struck the Bradford car after the truck collided with the Raye truck driven by Thompson.

Mrs. Bradford and the three surviving children were injured. The total award was for personal injuries, loss of earnings, hospital and funeral expenses, and loss of husband and father.

Automatic Nose Cone Announced

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force has announced development of a revolutionary missile nose cone which automatically bends to aim its measuring instruments at the sun.

The service said the 8-foot long cone was successfully test-flown recently while attached to an Aerobee-H research rocket. It was launched 90 miles above the earth from the White Sands Missile Range in New Mexico.

Only Two Major College Cage Teams Unbeaten

By DON WEISS Associated Press Sports Writer

It's two down and two to go today in college basketball's "beat-the-unbeaten week." Now it's up to two of the nation's best, West Virginia and Bradley, to try to finish the job Saturday.

The major unbeaten list stands at two after LaSalle's double overtime 91-4 loss to Syracuse Wednesday night on the heels of a night defeat of Texas A&M. The two survivors, top-ranked Cincinnati and ninth-ranked Villanova, are shaky at best what with Cincinnati scheduled at Bradley (11-1) and Villanova at West Virginia (14-1) Saturday night.

As if their season records aren't enough, both Bradley and West Virginia are next to unbeatable on their home courts. Bradley made it 30 straight home victories, Wednesday night, routing Drake 84-58, while West Virginia, which downed Virginia 102-81 at Charleston, W.Va., has pegged 39 in a row before the home folks at Morgantown, W.Va.

Cincinnati, with Oscar Robertson scoring 27 points, rolled to its fourth straight Missouri Conference triumph Wednesday night 79-57 over 11th-ranked St. Louis (10-4). Villanova, getting 20 points from sophomore Hubie White and 19 apiece from John Driscoll and George Raveling, whipped Temple 81-69. And Bowling Green's Jimmy Darrow had one of the big nights of the season, scoring 52 points in an 88-82 victory over Toledo.

Lee Shaffer, a senior from Pittsburgh, hit for 20 points as North Carolina won its third ACC game without a loss, 62-51 over North Carolina State. Wake Forest (4-1) the ACC thumped South Carolina, 44-33.

Miami of Florida topped Jacksonville 78-70 and Georgia Tech, with scoring ace Roger Kaiser netting 22 points, defeated Georgia 80-64.

Dartmouth made it 3-0 in Ivy competition, using a balanced attack for a 66-53 decision over Harvard. Brown went into two overtimes to edge Yale 94-89 and Princeton downed Penn 62-50 in other Ivy activity. Columbia and Cornell stepped into non-league action for victories — Columbia over Rutgers 82-79 and Cornell over Colgate 71-69.

Dayton (11-3) beat Duquesne 75-60, and Army (9-1) and Navy (8-2) won again. The Cadets over Massachusetts 80-70 as soph St. Sherard scored 34 points and Lee Sager 25, and the Midgies over American U. 85-60 behind Dave Tremaine's 24 points.

Virginia Tech stayed unbeaten in the Southern Conference, routing hapless Davidson 93-51.

THE LADY AND THE GIANT

By Clarence Budington Kelland

© 1939 by Clarence Budington Kelland. © 1939 by The Curtis Publishing Company. Distributed by NEA Service.

THE STORY: A massive stone wall discovered on Stubby Newell's farm at Cardiff, near Syracuse, is almost as big a sensation to Orrin Applegate and Lottie Fox as the arrival of the fantastically beautiful and rich Madam Cissie Janeway. Lottie reserves judgment both on the Giant and Madam Janeway.

CHAPTER III

After taking Lottie home, I sat down in a rustic chair on our lawn and lit a corn-cob pipe. A habit I had acquired at college. A dark figure appeared around the side of the house across the street. So furtive was his movements that I thought he was a burglar until he huddled against the wall under the library window and whistled a distinctive, quavering bird call. It might be some young man seeking a tryst with one of the servants.

After a few moments, a light moved inside the house and the side door opened and Madam Janeway stood on the threshold. In that brief moment while she was visible, it seemed to me that her emotions were rage and fear. The figure darted up the steps and before he reached the door, I saw his face indistinctly. Not so clearly that I could swear to his identity. In a court of law, out of one thing I was certain. He wore side-whiskers of the sort called sideburns or burn-sides.

The country was still staggering from the tragic impact of Black Friday, which had shocked the Nation only three weeks ago. Jay Gould and Jim Fisk had plotted to corner gold. It was a scandal that touched the White House. For General Grant's brother-in-law, Corbin, had assumed Gould that the Federal Government would not intervene. However, on that day of unrestrained hysteria on the gold exchange, the President had ordered the sale of Treasury gold.

We in Syracuse were sure that hypocritical old Dan Drew and Boud and flamboyant Jim Fisk were allied with the powers of darkness, because their enemy Commodore Vanderbilt was an admired friend of ours. Indeed, we had named a city square for him, and we had followed eagerly the struggle between these giants for control of the Erie Railroad.

These things are matters of history, which you would not think would touch James Street except as a financial convulsion is bound to affect every citizen, rich and poor. But you would have been mistaken, because James Street was touched, modified, shaken, and almost destroyed, merely by the strange, the unbelievable use of one of their names. This was the name of old Dan Drew.

"Banker Watts," my mother said, "is planning a dinner to introduce this Madam Janeway to Syracuse society. And then, 'Of course we shall attend.'"

"No one will stay away," father said sardonically. Then added in a sort of roguish way he had when he was teasing mother, "Of course you wouldn't have heard the whisper. You wouldn't listen to gossip."

"Mother," mother responded briskly, "that it's you men who always get the first breath of scandal."

"Well," father told her, "the whisper going around is that Madam Janeway is a protégé of Drew's."

"What kind of a protégé?" mother demanded sharply. "Not specified," father answered; "but knowing Dan's reputation for plety, I'd guess it was platonic."

"Fiddlesticks!" mother snorted. "When we arose from the table, I walked downtown to my small office, in which I was ready to practice law if some client would retain me for that purpose."

"It was half past 10 by my gold watch when someone rapped on my door and I called an invitation to enter, composing myself to dignified posture and placing the law book where it would be seen by my visitor. It was, to my disappointment, only Bub Whit-ry, who was Mr. Watts' office boy."

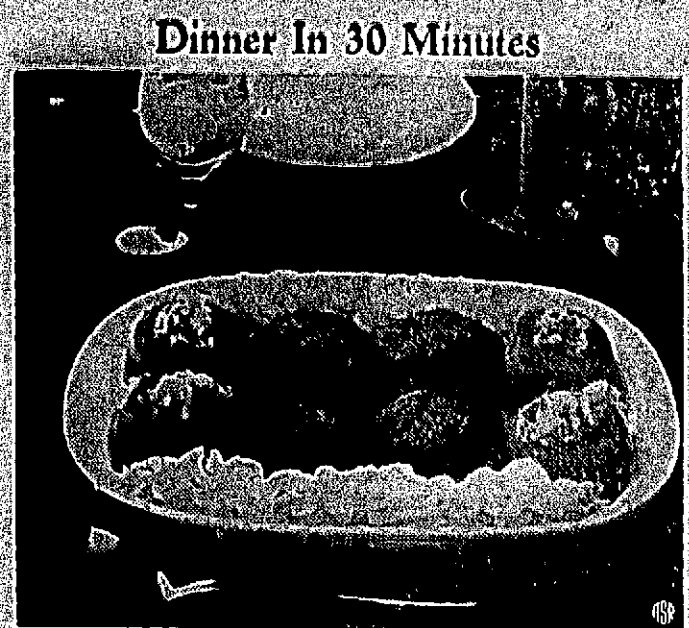

"He wants to see you over to the bank," Bub said.

"He didn't say," I asked. "He didn't say," Bub told me, and backed out of the office.

A young man in my position does not disregard a command from a prominent banker, so I put on my hat and cut across the square.

I stopped suddenly just over the threshold, and I fear I gawped. For skirts carefully arranged and one tiny foot visible and a tiny bonnet peered upon her modestly arranged hair, there was Madam Janeway.

Madame Janeway smiled charmingly and extended a hand

For the busiest day of the week, the one where everything happens at once, every homemaker needs a quick one-dish dinner recipe. This Beef Burger Dinner is the answer to the problem. Baked in one dish, it's a meal in itself, and takes just thirty minutes from start to finish.

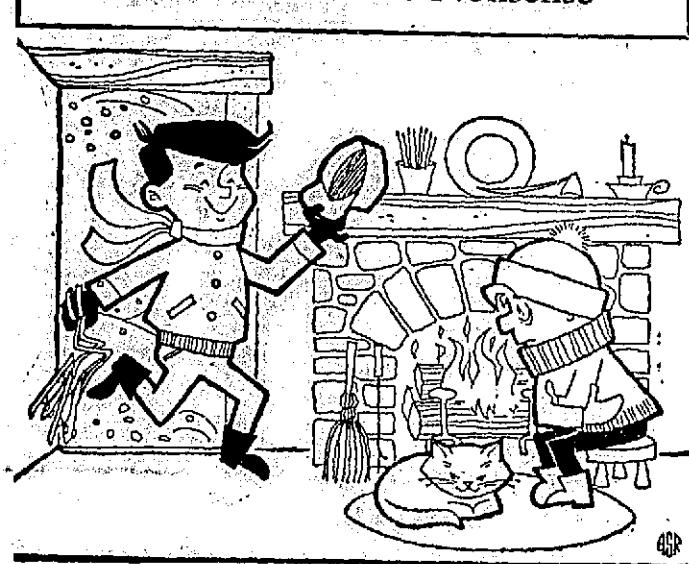

The burgers come first. Make patties from your family's favorite kind of ground beef, with Accent to bring out all the good lean beef flavor. This is important, for in simple dishes the flavor must be the best to tempt particular appetites.

After the patties have cooked in a shallow baking dish for 15 minutes, it's a simple matter to add instant mashed potatoes and a fresh or canned vegetable. Tomato halves are used in the picture; you might substitute canned green beans or peas. A dollop of butter and another short term in the oven, and the Beef Burger Dinner is on the table.

Beef Burger Dinner
1 pound ground beef
1 teaspoon Accent
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
Instant mashed potatoes
2 tomato halves
1 can (or 1 pound) green beans or peas

Sprinkle beef with Accent, salt and pepper. Toss gently with fork to distribute seasonings. Shape into 4 patties, place in center of a shallow baking dish or pie plate. Bake in a hot oven (425°F.) 15 minutes. While hamburgers are baking, prepare instant potatoes according to package directions for 4 servings. Remove baking dish from oven. Place 2 tomato halves, cut side up, on either side of hamburgers. (Beans or peas may be substituted for tomato.) Spoon potatoes, or force through pastry bag, around edge of baking dish. Dot vegetables with butter; sprinkle with Accent, salt and pepper. Return to oven and bake 15 minutes longer. Yield: 4 servings.

Food Sense—Not Nonsense

A Fuel-Up Versus A Warm-Up

A word for you who freeze up, huddle by the fire when the thermometer dips or when balmy breezes turn chill. You may not be eating enough food; you may not be eating the right kind of food. Why not fuel-up instead of warm-up? Enough and the right kind of food are a must for man to withstand the impact of chilling winds or freezing temperatures . . . to work well in the cold. Studies at the University of Illinois show that man needs food with a high carbohydrate count if he is to be counted on to work efficiently in winter weather.

For the man who is out in the cold to excel in everyday tasks—those that involve an alert mind, nerve-muscle efficiency and coordination—researchers ranked the high-carbohydrate, adequate protein diet tops. It far surpassed the high protein, low-carbohydrate diet in helping him combat the effects of the cold.

There is a reason for this. Carbohydrates furnish energy more rapidly than the other calorie sources: proteins and fats. Man's need for energy soars in direct proportion to the speed of the wind or a low-down thermometer reading. The hobbling effect of clothing also increases energy needs.

Even Eskimos can take heart. Unable to obtain foods high in carbohydrate most of the year, they get along on what is available. With improved transportation to the Arctic, Eskimos may not just survive, but thrive.

Best advice to Eskimos and others chilled by weather out of the North: Be sure to eat plenty of foods high in carbohydrate—fruit, most vegetables, cereal, milk, and bread.

Ex-Crittenden County Judge Dies

MARION, Ark. (AP) — Former Crittenden County Judge Cyrus Bond died at his home here today after a five-month illness.

Bond, 70, served five terms on the bench, from 1922 to 1928, and was long active in the county as a business and political leader. At the time of his death he was president of St. Francis County Flood Control Assn. and a member of the board of the St. Francis levee district.

Bond also was a civil engineer and was associated with his son, Cyrus Bond Jr., in Bond Engineering Co., Inc.

A native of Texas, he was reared in Memphis and moved to Marion in 1914.

Survivors include his widow, the son, and two daughters, Mrs. Sam Stuckey of Lepanto, Ark., and Mrs. T. C. Quackenbush of Rome, Italy.

U. S. Heiress, Boy Friend Hiding Out

By GEORGE McARTHUR

PARIS (AP)—American heiress Gamble Benedict and her Romanian-born boy friend Andro Porumbescu hid out today in the apartment of a Paris lawyer.

Two husky photographers working for a Paris agency which purchased exclusive rights to the couple's runaway love story—burst the door and the lawyer, Jean Coscesco, flitted in and out.

"I can't say anything now," said Coscesco, adding: "They definitely are not here."

Despite his denial, they were reported to have slipped into the apartment early this morning with two leather traveling bags and a smaller valise.

Tuesday night they were reported to have stayed at a small hotel, not far from Coscesco's apartment where she identified herself as a student and he as an economist.

Coscesco, a royalist member of the Romanian exile colony in Paris, said he had been named by the couple as their legal representative.

He was in contact with a dozen or more newspapers and magazines negotiating to sell the exclusive story of the transatlantic romance of the 18-year-old heiress and the 37-year-old ex-convict.

Survivors include his widow, the son, and two daughters, Mrs. Sam Stuckey of Lepanto, Ark., and Mrs. T. C. Quackenbush of Rome, Italy.

Flu Outbreaks Upset Several Parts of U. S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Outbreaks of mild influenza have upset community routine in various parts of the country, closing schools, dropping production, delaying justice, and parking up the sale of pills.

Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Flemming said Tuesday that nine states had reported outbreaks. In four, the variety was Asian flu. Flemming named Texas, Tennessee, Kentucky, Ohio, Michigan, California, Nevada, Utah and Hawaii.

There were signs that other states might be added soon. The epidemiologist for Seattle, Wash., was concerned that it might hit his area.

There has been a moderate spread of flu carried back to Seattle from Los Angeles. By people who went to the Rose Bowl football game, Dr. R. T. Rivenhall said.

After Secretary Flemming's announcement, Dr. John Porterfield of the Public Health Service said that Asian flu had been confirmed in Tennessee, Ohio, Michigan and Hawaii.

"We do not think there will be as many cases as in the previous outbreak and they will not be as universal," he said.

Two years ago, a winter epidemic of Asian flu spread over most of the country.

In Los Angeles county, the "Q-flu" kept 2 per cent of city employees, 15 per cent of industrial workers, 10 to 15 per cent of students, and 10 per cent of the teachers at home.

Illness struck judges, jurymen, prosecutors, witnesses, and defendants, causing a logjam in the courts.

Health officials termed the virus the "Q-flu" because it has not been identified. The Q stands for question mark.

Influenza closed schools in Tennessee's Perry County from Dec. 13 until last Monday.

Columbus, Ohio, druggists reported a thriving pill business as many residents walked about sneezing and coughing with bad colds or more serious infections.

Dr. Joseph G. Milner, the Detroit health commissioner, said the flu has hit the Detroit area in serious proportions. His department is conducting a series of tests to determine the type, potency, and prevalence of the influenza.

Retaliation for Anti-Jew Outbreaks

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Several British companies today were reported firing German workers or cold-shouldering German goods in retaliation for the anti-Semitic outbreaks in West Germany.

As the painting of swastikas and anti-Jewish slogans continued in various countries, President Eisenhower added his voice to the outcry against the vandals. In a message to an emergency meeting of the American Jewish Congress in New York, Eisenhower said the "virus of bigotry" must not be allowed "to spread one inch."

Dr. Koachim Ritter, West German charge d'affaires in London, said several German office workers had been fired in the British capital and one famous London store had disposed of its German-made typewriters, shoes and coats, and canceled orders for more German goods.

The diplomat refused to give the names of the British businesses which had taken the reprisals. The embassy press attache said the number was small.

Ritter said he had made a routine report of this to his government but did not think Bonn would protest to the British government. His disclosure was published after he had made it to German newspaper correspondents stationed in Britain.

Eisenhower's message, read to the American Jewish Congress Tuesday night, said that when bigotry "becomes rampant, it can cause the destruction of freedom and decency everywhere."

Protestant and Roman Catholic leaders also sent messages to the congress deploring the recent vandalism. Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York wired: "Every thinking person is indignant at these shameful acts and those responsible for these depredations in various parts of the world."

In West Berlin, two neo-Nazi youth organizations, the National Youth of Germany and the Federation of National Students, were outlawed. Despite their sounding names the two groups probably have fewer than 100 members between them.

The couple landed in Antwerp Sunday after crossing the Atlantic by ship. They arrived in Paris late Monday night and apparently made contact with Coscesco almost immediately.

Despite reports from New York that Porumbescu's wife from whom he is separated, and Miss Benedict's brother were coming to Paris to break up the romance, neither had yet been seen in Paris.

Police were separately concerned. No request has been made to them officially to locate the runaway couple and until then the police say they have no interest in the affair.

protected by a lace mitt. Somehow I felt that I should bow over it and kiss her fingers. She created that sort of atmosphere.

"How do you do, Mr. Applegate," she said in a rich contralto voice. "It was gracious of you to come."

"It was a pleasure," I responded, and waited.

Though there was a third chair, Mr. Watts did not invite me to occupy it. I was not entitled to sit in his presence.

"Madam Janeway," he said with a bow to her direction, "to attend to your eminent counsel, I will be glad to see you at a later date. But there will be numerous petty details and unimportant matters, in which she will require the services of a legal lawyer."

I contented myself by bowing but I was elated.

"Therefore," Mr. Watts continued in his pompous way, "I have recommended you to serve in that capacity."

Hopeful of Controlling Pollution

WASHINGTON (AP)—Government surveyors were reported Tuesday to be encouraged over the possibility of controlling much of the salt water flowing into the Arkansas River basins.

The Public Health Service in a progress report released by Sen. Robert S. Kerr (D-Okla.) said it has been determined that most of the salt water is coming from small quantities of water feeding into the lakes.

The salty water is coming mostly from springs or seeps on most of the upper tributaries of Red and Arkansas rivers, the report said.

The flow from these springs and seeps is very small, ranging from a mere trickle to approximately four cubic feet per second flow, the report added. The salt content of these flows varies from less than one water to a saturated brine solution.

The total volume of water issuing from these sources is quite small. This fact immediately suggests that it would be both practical and economically feasible to locate these areas in some manner thus preventing this highly concentrated flow of salt from entering the fresh water streams.

Kerr is releasing the report, said the possibility of eliminating a larger percentage of the pollution from both the Red River and the Arkansas River is revealed in the report.

Might as Well Go Ahead and Take Jelly

By SAUL PATT
NEW YORK (AP)—It was breakfast. The kids weren't down yet.

And he happened to say: Would you pass the marmalade?

She said: Better go easy on it. He: Why? I'm too old for jam.

She: Just that there isn't much this morning. We ought to save some for the kids. They'll be down soon. Try some jelly.

He: Are we rationing marmalade now?

She: No, we're not rationing marmalade now. It's just that I forgot to get some.

He: That's great! You know I can't eat eggs without marmalade.

She: Be brave.

He: One morning, just one simple, solitary little morning, I'd like to have breakfast in Venice.

She: You started it.

He: By asking for the marmalade.

She: By whining about the marmalade after you were told all about it.

He: It's just long planning. If you'd write things down, you'd know what you needed when you got to the supermarket.

She: All right, my field marshal, suppose you reorganize it. Suppose you get me a chief of staff. Have him start by ordering up reinforcements for our check-in account?

He: A man asks for a little marmalade and—What about our checking account?

She: It's down to $6.76 and I've still got a stack of bills to pay and that's what's about our checking account, general.

He: What about the $250 I deposited two weeks ago?

She: There was the mortgage payment, my dear Baron Rothschild, and the payment on Helen's braces and—

He: But $230!

She: And the bill for the new fry and you ordered and remember, I'm not forgetting New Year's Eve at the Country Club and I told you to go to the bank and you kept saying a wife shouldn't try to make a husband feel small and earthbound all the time? Remember, my charming astronaut, how you took off? Well, we just got the bill for all the champagne.

He: One morning, just one, solitary little morning I'd like to have breakfast in peace. Just one.

She: And there's three breakfast bills from your dancing. Mr. Astaire, and the garage man wants $64 for the fender, and we're a month behind on the oil bill and there's $56.25 worth of small bills which come under "miscellaneous," and that, "Dr. Schweitzer, is why I was so distracted I forgot the marmalade at the supermarket and—

He: Do you have to using up money at breakfast?

She: Would you prefer I bring it up at dinner?

He: Pass the jelly, please.

Car Plunges Into River, Woman Drowns

GARDEN, Ark. (AP)—A 61-year-old woman drowned near here yesterday when her car plunged backwards over a bluff into the Ouachita River.

Gardner George Maffie told Mrs. Hazel Vick of the Newcomb Landing Community died accidentally when the car rolled over the river as she was preparing to drive from her house to the mail box.

Her husband, LC Vick, had been working at a neighbor's house and returned to find his wife and car missing. The neighbor, R. B. Reynolds, discovered the tracks leading to the river and authorities were called.

The car with Mrs. Vick's body in it was recovered late last night. Vick told officers the car's brakes were bad and that it had been out of use for a week. It dropped off a 15 foot bluff into water nine feet deep.

Winter Freeze Is Good to Eat

No matter how cold the winds blow, the school crowd loves ice cream in January as it did in June. Here's a new way to have fruit-flavored freezes all year round. It's easy enough for the teenage lady of the house to make at home and it's inexpensive enough for her to serve often to her friends after school.

Evaporated milk and canned fruit are the reasons for the low cost of Fantasia Fruit Freeze - about 25¢ a quart. These ingredients are easy to store in the pantry shelf, to be opened when the yen to make ice cream strikes.

It's the evaporated milk that gives Fantasia Fruit Freeze its satin-smooth texture, and the double solid content of evaporated milk prevents formation of large ice crystals during freezing. Once the dessert has been poured into the freezing tray, it stays there until it's served. There's no going back to beat it midway.

Fantasia Fruit Freeze

- 1 tall can (1 1/2 cups) evaporated milk
- 3 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1 cup sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 can (1 pound) fruit of your choice

Chill evaporated milk in freezer tray of refrigerator until ice crystals form around edges. Turn into large chilled bowl and whip with cold rotary beater or on high speed of electric mixer until milk is stiff. Add lemon juice, beat until blended. Combine sugar, salt, fruit and liquid from can; fold into whipped mixture. Turn into 2 freezer trays; freeze until firm. Yield: 2 quarts.

Apricot: Use 1 can (1 pound) apricots, finely cut.

Blueberry: Use 1 can (1 pound) blueberries.

Cherry: Use 1 can (1 pound) red tart cherries, water pack, finely chopped.

Young Demos Patch Up Troubles

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — There will be no splinter organization of Young Democrats at the University of Arkansas.

Sandy McMath, who threatened to organize a new group after he was ousted as president of the university Young Democrats last week, said last night he had reached a compromise with Miles Hale of Belleville, the man who had fired him.

Hale, a university law senior and president of the statewide Young Democrats organization, acted against McMath on grounds that he was not a member in good standing when elected last month.

McMath said the principal concession he gained was a hearing before the state Young Democrats executive committee, not later than Feb. 1.

Meanwhile, Gail Cowart of Alma, a senior engineering student, was named president of the university chapter to replace McMath.

Members of the executive committee, said the university club's charter, suspended when McMath was ousted, would be reinstated.

The settlement followed a week of charges and counter-charges, including a charge by Hale that McMath's group favored the Paul Butler stand rather than principles of the Arkansas Democratic Party.

Butler, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, has been critical of Gov. Orval E. Faubus' role in the Little Rock integration crisis.

Hale is a staunch booster of Faubus, whose organization helped him get elected president of the Young Democrats. McMath, once was Faubus' political sponsor but now is at odds with the governor.

West's Major Trade Powers in Conference

By ULYS YATES

PARIS (AP)—The major trading powers of the Western world met today to consider a U.S. proposal for a new economic organization with global responsibilities.

The proposal was formally submitted to the 20-nation meeting by U.S. Undersecretary of State C. Douglas Dillon, who wants to set up a group of "wise men" to work out the plan.

The two-fold purpose of the American proposal is to heal the rift between the two West European trade blocs and coordinate

Western aid to underdeveloped countries.

Dillon is understood to believe it will take 15 months to get a new "North Atlantic economic organization" going. He wants a smaller interim group to begin coordinating aid and handling the other powers into patching up trade differences.

While most of the 20 participating powers are agreed on these goals in principle, the underlying differences could spell trouble when it comes to dollars and cents bargaining.

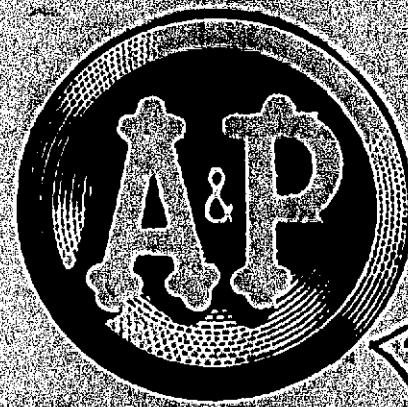

The "wise men" planners proposed by Dillon would come from the United States, Britain, France and possibly one smaller power. These financial experts would consult the 18 governments of the Organization for European Economic Cooperation (OEEC), plus the United States and Canada,

The first lumbermill in Pike County was located at "Old Star of the West" on Little Missouri River 20 miles north of Murfreesboro. This was a watermill and its principal products were lumber, carding of wool, meal and flour.

during the 15-month organization period.

After consultations, the experts would work out a new economic organization acceptable to all 20 powers. This would replace the OEEC which now is out of favor with many European powers since it was involved in negotiations which left unhealed the present trade split in Europe.

The United States and Canada are not full members of the OEEC although they participate in its debates. They would be full members of the new organization.
